Nota bene: prices given by Kilroy are in US dollars. The exchange rates fluctuates, which means the customer does not know what the cost in euro's will be. It is unclear on Kilroy's website which exchange rate will be used.

Comments

The Fulbright Center offers an all-inclusive price, which means a price which includes the SEVIS fee and a mandatory health insurance.

Kilroy and Stage-USA.nl publish net prices, but as the SEVIS fee and health insurance are mandatory, they are included for comparison reasons.

Prices for site visits, consular appointments and the visa cost at the consulate are not included, they are the same in all cases.

Conclusion

Fulbright Center offers a price which is substantially lower than those of Kilroy and Stage-usa.nl. The smallest difference is for a 6 month stay, even then the Fulbright Center is still € 274 cheaper than Stage-USA.
